

Feature Doc
Released
2019

Singled Out

Singled Out tells the story of five educated women in four corners of the world. They all travel solo in a world where pairing up is the norm. Together with the voices of some well-known experts in the areas of sociology, law and demography, the film unveils modern love in the era of choice, and is a journey to the heart of being a single woman today.

Feature Film
Released
2013

Circle

Circle is a peculiar story of an ordinary man caught between an untimely romance and a brave new hostile world. Feramus, member of a philosophy faculty in a university, returns to hometown for his father's funeral. There, he and two other locals whom he interacts face dramatic changes in their lives.

Feature Film
In Post Production

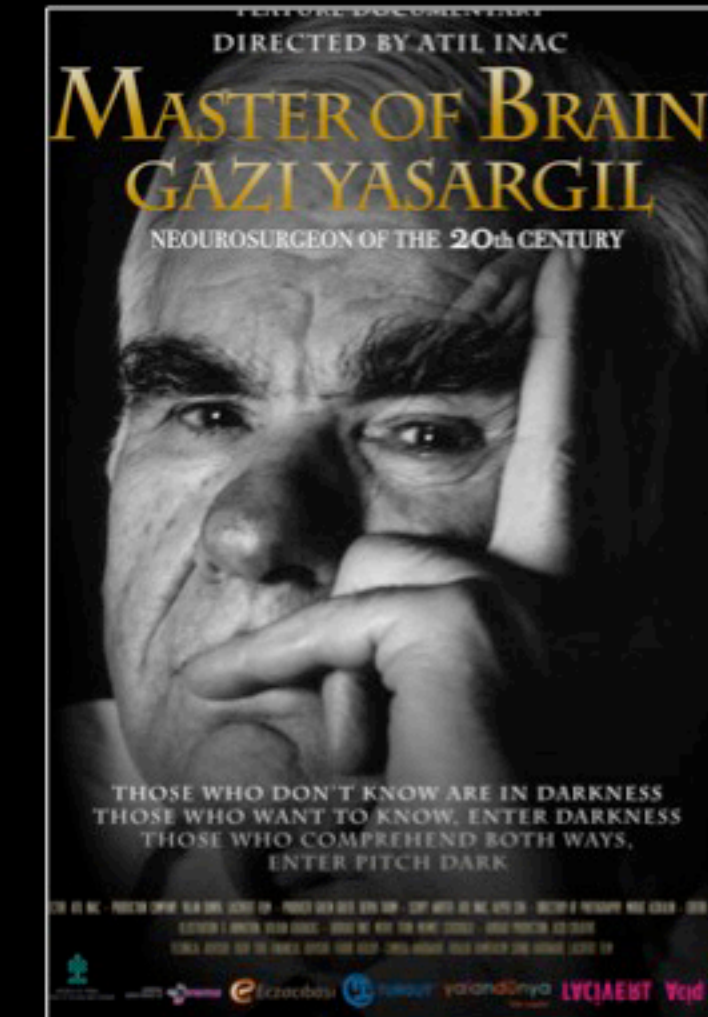

Partner

An aspiring yet failing young actor decides to pimp out her ex girl friend for an easy leap. They set up one ground rule; not to fall in love in each other. Things don't go as planned.

Feature Doc
Completed
2019

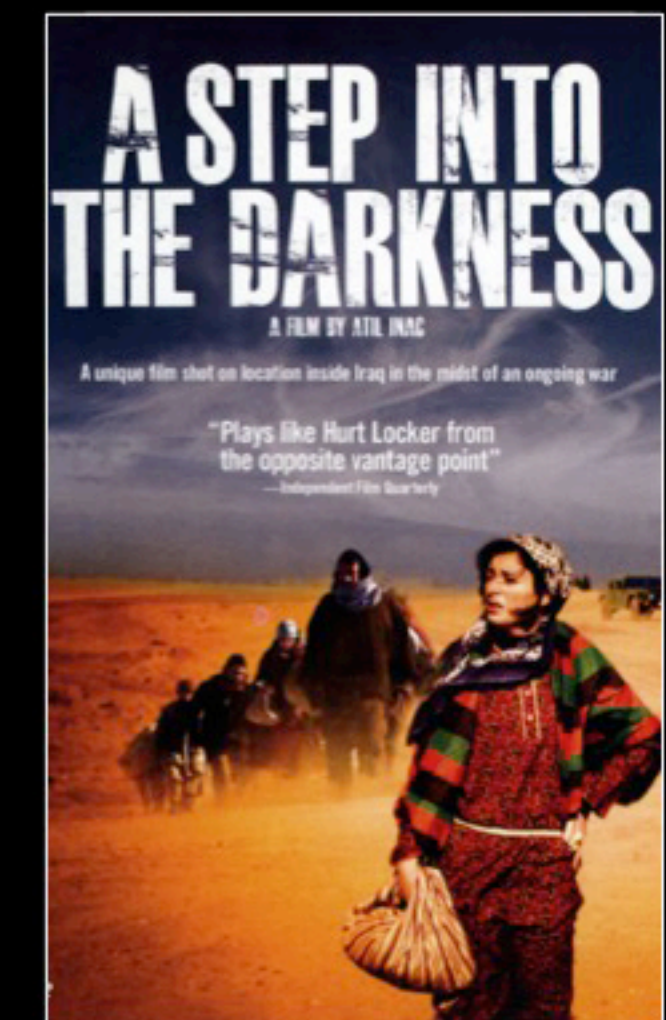

Master of Brains

Gazi Yaşargil is a world-renowned medical scientist and neurosurgeon. Yaşargil treated epilepsy and brain tumors with instruments of his own design. In 1925 he was born in a cave dwelling in the Kurdish region of Turkey. In 1999 he was honored as "Neurosurgery's Man of the Century. He is regarded as one of the founders of neurosurgery in the modern age. His real life story is one of the best examples of Hero's unrelenting journey.

Feature Film
Released
2010

A Step into the Darkness

A human being with nothing to lose, is the most dangerous being there is." Atıl Inac. An entire village in northern Iraq is wiped out when misinformed and panicked American soldiers stage a nighttime raid there.